2023 IPA International Congress
Lisbon, Portugal • June 29-July 2, 2023

View our venue, the Culturgest, in beautiful Lisbon!

International Psychogeriatric Association
Better Mental Health for Older People

Pre-Congress Workshops, June 29

- Evidence-Informed Approach to De-Prescribing of Atypical Antipsychotics (AAP) in the Management of Behavioral Expressions (BE) in Advanced Neurocognitive Disorders (NCD): Results of a Retrospective Study.

- Develop, implement and evaluate technology for social health in dementia: lessons in best practice from the European DISTINCT network

- Cognitive Assessment for Older People in Daily Clinical Practice – A Primer

- Humanitarian Crisis and Old Age Mental Health

- Mitigating Ageism in Everyday Clinical Care

- Young-onset Dementia (YOD), new developments, part 1 and part 2

Keynote and Plenary Speakers, June 29-July 2

- Keynote: Amal Abou Rafeh & Claudia Mahler (UN), Emerging Concepts in Combating Ageism, Protecting and Promoting Human Rights and Mental Health of Older Persons

- John Beard, Healthy Aging and the Role of the Environment

- Manabu Ikeda & Dilip Jeste, Late Onset Psychosis & Schizophrenia,

- Rose Marie Droes, The importance and value of psychosocial care in dementia in historical perspective, with reflection and commentary

- Sube Banerjee and Marjolein de Vugt, The role of social connectedness in multifactorial demential syndrome. Does social life matter? - IPA/INTERDEM webinar

View our full 2023 IPA Congress program with abstracts and speaker information here!

Other opportunties to enjoy include...
Welcome Reception and cocktail hours - Coffee and lunch breaks with poster viewing and award ceremonies - IPA Dinner at 1300 Taberna at LX Facotry (limited spots!) - Affiliate Networking Event - Early Career Networking Event - raffles and activities to win IPA Membership and free 2025 Congress registration - connecting with peers from around the world

Register for early bird discounts now and view our full page of registration rates!